

The freedom of choice is mine. All this is, is about competition. If other broadcasters feel threaten, then they need to improve their own station. I will tune in to whoever proves to be the most accurate and timely - doesn't matter if it's a/m, f/m, or satellite.

How about doing something more constructive like cleaning up the filth on some other stations - instead of weather and traffic!!!!!!!!!!